GM Design Wins "Cool Places to Work" Award

Passionate, creative culture fuels GM's future cars on historic campus.

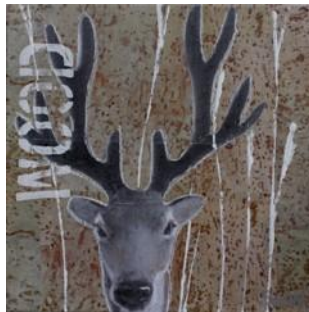

This photo has been taken during the opening of the "Self Portrait Show" at the GM Design Center Gallery in August 2011.

THE WOOD SERIES

One of the most impressive things in the Michigan area where I currently live is the amount of mature trees. It creates an environment that makes me feel as living in a forest. Plenty of shade during the hot summer months, combined with green lawn all around. It somehow calms me down, generates an environment of silence and structured nature. Along with the woods [...]

THE MUSHROOM SERIES

I have created the MUSHROOM SERIES during a moist season in Michigan. Mist on the lakes and thunder all around. Lots of rain along with warm nights. They ooze up through the earth during the night [...]
